But who was this maiden so fair?

There it was, the perfect image, a photo of a girl that captured the spirit, soul and energy of spring break—a young, sexy hottie, tanned and toned and oh so happy on the beach at South Padre Island. She was made for our cover, with her Playboy bikini and beads and a smile so electric it outglimmered Cledy Crawford's. But who was this maiden so fair? Who was this Cinderella who disappeared into the crowd and vanished from our keen-eyed photographer? "I snapped this one photo, then turned to reload my camera and when I looked up, ready to shoot again—poof!—she was gone," recalled Dallas-based Contributing Photographer Ric Moore. But with a photo so captivating and a smile so beguiling, this siren of the beach had to be found. Using the power of the Internet, we posted her photo on playboy.com with an APB for SE's most-wanted mystery woman. Traffic to the site and publicity from radio and TV brought dozens of messages from would-be beauty hunters promising her delivery very much alive. But it was only after culling through the wannabes and imposters that we found the real cover girl—a senior at Texas A&M who was finishing her finals and heading home to mom for the Memorial Day weekend when we caught up with her. "I'm in shock. This is so awesome," she said. "I'm flattered that you liked this photo so much that you would actually put me on your Web site and track me down. My sister called and told me to look at the site, and when I saw my photo made up as a cover, it truly blew my mind. This is the most exciting thing that has ever happened to me." Oh, yes, our now-famous cover girl's name is Jo Kory, and if you think she should shed that bikini for the October College Girls issue, go to our Web site and give her the thumbs-up. Now that we've found her, let's not let her go.

✓ To this female reader (thank you for the Tiffany Taylor pictorial—yum!), it seems that in spite of our increasingly multiracial society, Playboy still holds on to the ideal of the busty blonde as supreme sex goddess. Get a clue, people! I have seen (and been with) beautiful women of all shapes, sizes and colors. It's time for Playboy to start reflecting the beauty and diversity of all American women—not just blonde 19-year-old waifs. Give me natural women across the age and color spectrums who revel in their sexuality. Our culture is aging gracefully—so should Playboy. ...K.T.R.

✓ Since I don't own a computer and don't plan on buying one anytime soon, how about sharing your Cyber Girls more often with those of us who prefer the print medium? I would dearly love to see Gina Patrone, Chantal Vachon and Aubrie Lemon, among others, become SE regulars. ...J.A.

✓ I loved Cyber Girls. All of the layouts were good, but the pictorial of Lizette Bordeaux (right) was sensational. All in all, the issue was a great teaser for your members-only Website. I may have to give up beer, cable TV and my bowling night, but if it means I can see more of Lizette and her Cyber sisters, I'll happily fork over the bucks to join your Cyber Club. ...T.M.

✓ Kerissa Fare is a gem. Her good looks and sensible remarks are a breath of fresh air. You could do no wrong by continuing to photograph this charming lady. ...M.S.

✓ When can we see more of Naomi Marquardt? She is the cutest woman I've ever seen—the ultimate girl next door. ...J.S.

✓ My boyfriend always buys all of your magazines, and I look through them, too, because I can also appreciate a beautiful girl. We were really impressed by Kristin Kerry. She is gorgeous and from Florida—like we are! You guys have got to have more of her in your upcoming SEs. She's a natural beauty, and that's very hard to find these days. ...Michelle and Doug ✓ Naomi Marquardt is the best of all the women in Natural Beauties. She's sexy and has a special way about her. I would like to see more of her in the future. ...M.L.

The future is now! Run out to a newsstand and pick up the July/Aug BCL for another dose of Naomi.

✓ I'm currently serving in a tank platoon deployed in Kosovo. We'd all like to thank you for putting out magazines with such beautiful women to help keep up our morale. One of our favorites is Kelly Hayes (above). She was spectacular in Natural Beauties. Kelly can ride shotgun on one of our tanks anytime! ...SPC A.N.

✓ In the last few SEs, I've noticed that you are including some pictures of ladies with more regular-size breasts and some even a bit on the small side. I like that. I'm fed up with highly inflated look-alike boobs, which are a bit grotesque. ...D.B.

✓ I can't believe you did it to me again! Oh my goodness, Kristin Kerry looks even more stunning in Girls of Summer! I'm going to buy a dozen copies and post her pics all over the garage at work! Thank you, thank you. ...Mike

✓ I want to thank you for the wonderful job you do in each and every issue. You guys are better than perfect! Thank you for sharing the most beautiful women the world has to offer with all of us, and for doing it in such a spectacular way! ...N.J.

HOT RODS & HOT BODS INDIANAPOLIS 500 TIME TRIALS

Newly crowned 2002 BDL Model of the Year Amy Miller recently revved up a few engines with race fans of the IRL series at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway. Amy, appropriately adorned in her Rabbit Head attire, spent two days in the Miller Lite Racing garage, where she signed autographs and took photos with fans who were eagerly anticipating the 86th running of the Indianapolis 500.

1. Amy with the winning Dux from Indianapolis' X100. 2. It's Miller time—Amy Miller, that is, Team Rahal driver Jimmy Vasser shows Amy how it feels behind the wheel of an Indy car. 3. Amy and Jimmy in the Miller Lite Racing garage. 4. Amy inscribes a good luck message on Vasser's engine.
